

Northwest HOPE & HEALING

STYLE '12 Look Good, Feel Good, Do Good! Fashion Show Benefit

FACT SHEET

The event:

What: Northwest Hope & Healing's 10th Annual Look Good, Feel Good, Do Good! Fashion Show Benefit including a runway show, fund-a-need and a prize drawing.

Why: To honor and celebrate breast cancer survivors and fashion in the Seattle area. Proceeds benefit Northwest Hope & Healing's Patient Assistance Fund which helps provide everyday basics like food, childcare and emergency rent for women who are battling breast cancer. Over the last 12 years, the Northwest Hope & Healing Patient Assistance fund has awarded grants to 1,529 women to help them get through breast cancer.

When: Thursday, May 3, at 7 p.m.

Where: Showbox SODO, 1700 1st Ave S, Seattle, WA 98134.

Program: Breast cancer survivors will be modeling the hottest spring looks from Seattle boutiques including: Carmilia's; Sweetie; Coastal; West Seattle Runner; Howard & Marge; Canopy Blue; Blue Luna; Asher Goods; Pink Ginger; Chloe and Dillon; Kick It Boots & Stompwear; Tatters; and Ola Salon.

How: Purchase tickets online at <http://www.nwhopeandhealing.org/events.html>
Tickets are available at three levels: Look Good General Admission, Feel Good VIP, and Do Good Top Model, with each level offering different seating and reception benefits.

The mission of Northwest Hope & Healing is to provide financial assistance to breast cancer patients in need, for everyday living expenses such as childcare, groceries, gas or reliable transportation, and emergency rent. In addition, the organization's signature "Healing Baskets" are assembled and delivered, at no charge, to newly diagnosed breast cancer patients. Northwest Hope & Healing's mission is to assist women with the healing process so they may begin to feel whole once again.

For more information visit www.nwhopeandhealing.org or contact Shari Sewell at shari@nwhopeandhealing.org.